Marcelo Castro Alves and Focus Investment Advisor Announce New Partnership with CFA Luigi Cattaneo

March 7, 2015 5:00 AM

Marcelo Castro Alves Hopes the Partnership will Help to Develop the Market of Italian Speaking Clients throughout Miami and the Rest of Florida

Miami, FL / ACCESSWIRE / March 7, 2015 / Marcelo Castro Alves, founder of Focus Investment Advisor, is pleased to announce a new partnership with CFA Luigi Cattaneo for future business endeavors. As Marcelo Castro Alves noted, he hopes the partnership with Mr. Cattaneo will help to develop the market with Italian speaking clients throughout Florida.

In addition to the new partnership, Marcelo Castro Alves said Focus Investment Advisor's website is now available in three additional languages besides English; visitors may now read the site in Italian, Portuguese and Spanish.

As founder and managing partner of CSS Capital Advisory LLC, Mr. Cattaneo has 17 years of banking and international financial markets experience, noted Marcelo Castro Alves.

"He started his career in 1996 at Accenture Milan as a business process engineer, working on IT restructuring projects and programming software applications in several languages," said Marcelo Castro Alves, adding that Mr. Cattaneo then moved to banking in 1997 as a business analyst in the business development and strategy unit of BSI S.A, the former private bank of Generali Insurance Group which is now part of Banco BTG Pactual.

"In 2006 he joined York Group, a hedge fund company with offices in NYC, Nassau and Rio de Janeiro, where he covered several roles: he managed a global macro proprietary book, he set up the funds' risk management and he was in charge of special projects."

Marcelo Castro Alves said he is pleased about the new partnership with Luigi Cattaneo. He said he knows Mr. Cattaneo's extensive experience and knowledge will make him a key part of Focus Investment Advisor's business.
